51st Gemenc Grand Prix 2026 International Cycling Road Race

Technical Guide

Date and Venue: 5–6 September 2026 (Saturday and Sunday).
Szekszárd and Gerjen, Hungary

Organizer: Vuelta Sportiroda,
Chief Organizer: Károly Eisenkrammer, Tel.: +36 30 222 6063
Race director: Steig Gábor (+3620-4550817)

Type of Race: A two-stage individual and team competition with an overall classification.
The first stage will be a criterium race held on Saturday, while the second stage will be a road race held on Sunday.

Participants: Teams may consist of 4–6 riders. A team may include riders from the Elite/U23 category as well as U19 riders. (Only Hungarian riders are eligible to enter the Masters category.) During the first stage (Saturday's criterium race), foreign teams may start with a maximum of 4 riders in the U19 race and a maximum of 4 riders in the Elite/U23 race.
For the second stage (Sunday's road race), a maximum of 6 riders may start in total.

Determination of Placings and Classification

1st Stage – Criterium, September 5, 2026

Technical meeting: 16:00, Szekszárd, Béla király tér 1. - Vármegyeháza

U19 – Start: 17:30 and the distance: 24 laps / 30 km

Elite/U23 – Start: 18:40 and the distance: 32 laps / 40 km

The winner of the first stage will be the rider who scores the highest number of points during the criterium race. Points will be awarded at intermediate sprints held at predetermined intervals during the race. The interval between intermediate sprints may vary depending on the category.

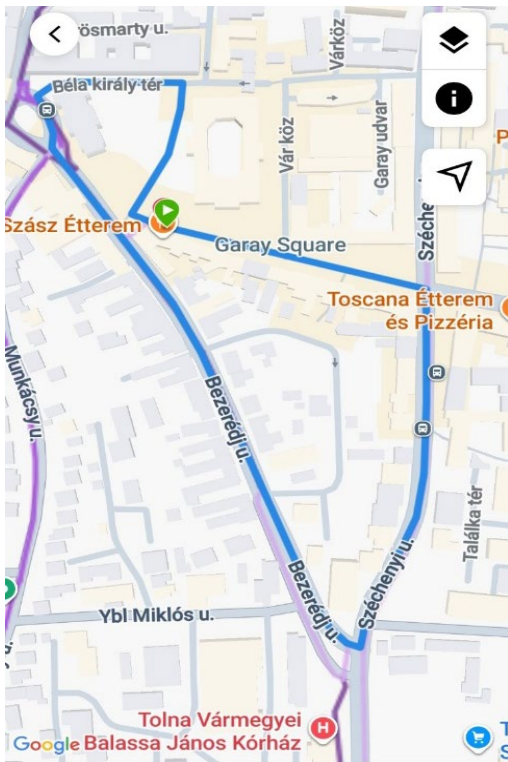

The final result of the criterium race will be determined by the total number of points scored during the intermediate sprints. The Elite/U23 and U19 categories will compete in separate races.

Based on the final classification of the first stage, riders will be awarded points towards the overall individual classification according to their finishing positions.
